GLOUCESTER

STREET DIRECTORY

COPYRIGHT, 1924, SAMPSON & MURDOCK Co., BOSTON, MASS.

Giving the location of Streets, Places, Parks, Squares, etc., and showing what other streets and places run from them, or across them, with the number at which they intersect

From this list, the location of any number on a street, or the location of any public building, can be easily ascertained; as, for instance, wishing to know at what part of Prospect Street No. 87 is located, you look at Prospect Street, and find that Elm Street runs from 81, and Chestnut Street from 93, showing that 87 would come on the right, between Elm and Chestnut Streets

When a street crosses another, numbers (or ciphers) are given on both sides; but when it begins or ends at that street, the number is given only on the side at which it intersects. Ciphers are used where no numbers exist

*Indicates accepted street. Streets accepted in part

Study the New England Business Field

The Busiest, Most Promising
Section of our Country is well represented between the covers of *The New England
Business Directory and Gazetteer*.

This Directory contains information of great value regarding the Manufacturing, Financial and Business Interests of New England and will amply repay a thorough knowledge of its possibilities to those interested in the business of these states

Send Your Sales Letters To “LIVE” Prospects

The mailing lists issued by Sampson & Murdock Co. are constantly revised and brought “up-to-the minute” by competent workers who use the latest city and state directories, in addition to other reliable information, in keeping them as accurate as is humanly possible.

Postage, printing and stock run so easily into money that every user of a mailing list will do well to consider the advantages of a list that has the minimum of dead wood and also the wisdom of having that list revised occasionally by experts.

The benefits of many a snappy sales letter, costly catalogue or other good advertising is lost because of the waste in sending to defunct firms, wrong addresses or other “has beens”.

Our business is designed to save you a large percentage of this waste and if you will communicate with us we will be much pleased to quote you a price on revising your old list or on an entirely new one.

Maybe we can also give you some suggestions on preparing copy that will be of value to you.

Manager—LAWRENCE J. HART

"It ain't the guns and armament, nor funds that they can pay,
But the close co-operation that makes them win the day—
It ain't the individual, nor the army as a whole,
But the everlastin' teamwork of every bloomin' soul."
—Rudyard Kipling.

THE GLOUCESTER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

IS ORGANIZED CO-OPERATIVE EFFORT TO ADVANCE THE CIVIC, COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL INTERESTS OF THE COMMUNITY AS A WHOLE.

Nature in all her goodness was extremely kind to Gloucester, more so than to most of the cities of the world, which in her natural element possesses unusual features of attractiveness, with exceptional opportunity for industrial endeavor.

GLOUCESTER { The largest salt fishing manufacturing port in the world.
 Cape Ann Granite—Nothing better.
 Summer Paradise—Freedom's Nature Spot.

Gloucester has one of the finest harbors along the Atlantic coast. It has splendid waterfront facilities for manufacturing purposes. Its transportation facilities are an asset to manufacturing— twenty-two trains per day to and from Boston; water transportation to Boston each day of the year, affording sideboard delivery for shipment to New York.

Gloucester already has in addition to its Fishing Interests thirty-four distinct industries that offer all-year-round employment to many workers.

Total 1921	54,762,170 "

Non-Resident tax-payers reside in 38 States—Every city and 141 towns in Massachusetts—3 Foreign countries—indicating the popularity of Gloucester as a summer resort.

The Gloucester Chamber of Commerce renders constant, practical, and effective service. It is in step with the world of to-day, and performs a function essential to the healthy life and sound development of the whole community. It unifies, harmonizes and energizes. It is the forum of discussion and expression of intelligent opinion on matters of local interest. It is fully informed on every phase of life in the community and in sympathetic touch with matters and inspiration of the people. It is the very backbone of the community, the sponsor of every constructive institution of effort. It is the means of holding the people together in the accomplishment of many common purposes and in building up civic pride that keeps alive the spirit that makes for continual progress.

It welcomes as members those who are seeking direct and specific services, such as credit information, employment, traffic and transportation data, and maintains departmental bureaus for those and many other services.

Modern Office and Entertainment Facilities—A Superior Information Bureau—Public Stenographer—Telephone Pay Station—Fine Reference Library—A Real, Genuine and Wide-Awake Organization.

There are two kinds of Advertising

That which the Buyer seeks, and that which is thrust upon him.

Both are good

Display advertising suggests wants and creates desire. Of its tremendous power many present day successes bear witness.

Reference Advertising steps in when the desire has been created. It shows where the goods can be purchased and gives information that the buyer wants when he wants to buy.

A Connecting Link

The weakness of display advertising is that often a need is not realized until the ad that suggested it is misplaced or thrown away.

A shrewd buyer usually looks the field over before buying and where is so logical a place to look as in this book.

A Help to You

In your buying, use the lists in this book. If you see a name in heavy type it is because that concern thought enough of your possible business to make it easy for you to find them. If it says "See page——", you will find there information that will really help you.

Are You Covered

Have you made it easy for buyers to find you, by putting a bold type listing under every heading where they might look for you or a competitor. Have you put information in the "Selling Section" that will really help a buyer, and point to you as the one who can serve him best?

If not, make a note to do it in the next edition, and let us tell you now how little it costs to be protected.

Can Your Stenographer Get You the Answer to the Following Questions?

Who is Principal of Springfield Technical High School?

Who is the lessee of Madison Square Garden?

Who manufactures merry-go-rounds in New England?

Who makes dustless mops?

Who deals in paints in St. Louis, Missouri?

How many hardware stores are there in Chicago?

Who is president of the First National Bank, New Orleans?

Such information can be obtained from the Directory Library, but many people do not know that they can refer to the directories of hundreds of cities in this way. All of the questions above and thousands of others can be answered by reference to the Directory Library.

Are You Looking for —

The street address of a person or a firm?

An initial of a name or a concern's style of name?

Names and titles of City, County or State Officials in some other part of the country?

The names of banks, real estate men; professional men or business men in another city?

Or do you want to know more about the industrial, residential, educational or business possibilities of some other city?

You will find the information you are seeking in the Directory Library of your city or by writing to the Library nearest to you. A list of Directory Libraries and their addresses will be found inside this folder.

Extracts from Letters of Men Who Know the Value and Extensive Use Made of Directory Libraries

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Albany, New York

I desire to express to you the very great appreciation of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, of the Directory Library, which we have in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, through the courtesy of the Sampson & Murdock Company. This very splendid Library of Directories is in almost constant use and thousands of people, including the members of the Chamber of Commerce, residents of the city in general, and visitors from all parts of the country use this Library during the course of the year. The Albany Chamber of Commerce offices are open from early morning until late at night, every day in the week and all holidays. We conduct a general information and touring bureau where we give free service along these lines to thousands of people each year. One of the most valuable services which we give them, and one which seems to be greatly appreciated, is the Library of Directories. We are fortunate in having such a splendid assortment, and some of the directories are in use all the time.

It is of great value to the business, professional and other men of the city to be able to come to our office and locate people and secure their addresses in other cities. A number of wholesale and retail people get valuable information in regard to names and addresses for the conduct of their business in other cities. We have also had several cases where the directories have been of great value in cases of sickness and death. I have one particular case in mind where an address in Los Angeles was made immediately available for relatives to secure the address of a lawyer who was able to be of value and important assistance in the case of a death of a member of a family, in this city, who was visiting in that city. Frequently business men have accounts with individuals, or with firms, in other cities, and this Directory Library enables them to secure the addresses for mailing bills and the like. We also feel that it is of great value to have the Albany Directory in similar Libraries throughout the country, because it enables residents and business men of other cities to get the names and addresses of firms in this city from whom they perhaps desire to make purchases. We feel that the classified directory, which is so well compiled in the Albany Directory, is of great value along these lines, and we have noticed frequently that the advertisements in the various directories are consulted. We also use these directories in carrying on the Chamber of Commerce work. We make especial reference to this service in our annual reports each year.

This Directory Library is one of the very valuable features of the Chamber of Commerce work, and we sincerely hope it may continue to expand.

(Signed) ROY S. SMITH, Executive Manager CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Troy, New York

We consider the Directory Service very valuable and many times a day the directories are referred to, both by our members and the public in general.

(Signed) G. W. LEMON, Managing Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Syracuse, New York

Each day we have numerous individuals and representatives of business firms come in to consult these directories, and we feel that they are of great service to the community.

Frequently we have people write us for information regarding Syracuse, and in all cases we refer them to the Chamber of Commerce Directory Library in the city in question, so for that reason we feel that it is very essential to have the latest Syracuse Directory on file in similar Libraries throughout the country.

(Signed) N. A. BROWN, Assistant Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Taunton, Mass.

The writer begs to advise you that he considers our Library of Directories of the various cities in the United States one of the chief assets of this office.

(Signed) FRANK L. LOEHLIN, Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Worcester, Mass.

It would be difficult indeed to express strongly enough my idea of the Directory Library maintained in this office.

There is probably no time during our office hours, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day in which there is not one or more persons in the office consulting a directory, and added to these personal calls there are every day innumerable telephone calls requesting us to look up the address of some individual.

I believe that our Directory Library is rendering a very distinct service to the City of Worcester, and that it would be nothing short of a calamity if we were obliged to discontinue it. I further believe that the placing of the Worcester Directory in similar offices in other parts of the country is a valuable service, not only to those communities where the book is placed, but to the business interests of Worcester.

With our very diversified industries there can be no doubt but that the people in other communities are consulting the Worcester Directory in order to get in touch with manufacturers here.

(Signed) ROSCOE H. GODDARD, General Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Woonsocket, R. I.

It seems to me worth while to maintain this Library of City Directories. We have frequent calls for information which we are able to secure from these directories, and although in some cases the directories are over a year old, we usually are able to use the books to advantage.

In cases where we have calls for information not in any of our books on hand, we make a practice of calling upon the Providence office of Sampson & Murdock, who usually have the information we seek.

So far as the Directory Library in Middletown is concerned, we find it very valuable. The number of people who come into the Chamber of Commerce office to look for an address in Buffalo, Rochester, or some other city, and are able to find it through the directories, is quite amazing. It is rather an unique service and one which people do not generally expect to find. They seem surprised when they do find it. If it does not cost too much I should say it wants to be continued by all means. I'll be frank with you, however, in stating that it is of much greater value to the Chamber of Commerce than to the directory publishers.

(Signed) ALAN C. MADDEN, Manager UNITED STATES POST OFFICE Gardner, Mass.

In regard to the Directory Library which has been in this office for several years. Not only the business men of this city call at the office and consult the files, but the men on the road are in here very frequently.

I have even received phone calls from places quite distant. I recall one instance where a person wished to obtain the address of some steamship company in New York. With the information that he gave me I found it for him in a very few minutes.

I receive many requests for permission to take some certain directory to the person's office or home, but in all such cases I refuse on the ground that you people own the directories and if we allowed them to be taken out, that would be just the time that somebody might call and wish to consult that directory.

A representative of one of the large magazines, published in New York, very recently called and made lists of people in other towns and cities. This party remarked that it was a splendid convenience and greatly appreciated.

Now indirectly there is a service to the business men not only here but to their correspondents, as we frequently locate correct addresses on mail going out which is incompletely addressed. It is seldom that we bother to call their attention to such corrections having been made, but it is none the less a practical help to them which could not be given if the file was located in any other place in this city.

I have had men call and ask for the names of firms who manufacture a certain line of goods. By consulting the directories they have been able to get the information, which, of course, results in business both ways. My judgment is that it should be continued.

(Signed) GEO. L. MINOTT, Postmaster FITCHBURG SENTINEL Fitchburg, Mass.

Your question in regard to the value of the Directory Library came at an opportune time to secure two illustrations of the use of the Library. Ordinarily we do not pay much attention to those who make use of it; we merely make them welcome and then allow them to use it as they see fit unless it is evident that they need help, in which case we go as far as is necessary.

When, however, I asked Mr. Wellington if he had anything to say that would throw light on the subject, he told me that within a few hours the general superintendent of one of our big paper mills had consulted several of the larger books.

Then the next day we gave the order for a $650 job to a Boston concern whose standing and range of work we had verified by use of the Boston Directory after we had found their name stenciled on one of their appliances.

We do not often have as concrete an instance as either of the foregoing, but we do know that the Library is continually used by all classes of people.

It is worth enough to us for our own convenience, so that rather than have it removed we would be willing to bear a part of the expense of maintenance.

On our own account we should be sorry to see the service discontinued, although we realize that it entails a considerable expense upon you for which there is no direct return.

(Signed) FRANK C. HOYT, Treasurer CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Miami, Florida

I have been endeavoring for several months to tell you how much we appreciate the wonderful Directory Library that, through your kindness, we have here in Miami. We have received a very large number of compliments from tourists from all over the United States, who tell us they have never seen, anywhere, a similar Library that was as complete as ours. Our own Miami business men also find the Library a splendid aid to them in their commercial affairs.

We are very pleased to make this acknowledgement and again express our appreciation for your assistance and co-operation.

(Signed) FRED L. WEEDE, Managing Secretary THE DETROIT RACK COMPANY Detroit, Michigan

This morning we received a telegram from a concern which was unknown to us in Sioux Falls, Iowa. Their street address was not given and consulting our Parcel Post Guide and Express Directory, we were unable to find this city. Neither were we able to find this concern listed in any of the commercial directories, so we called your Directory Library.

The writer does not know who the young lady was who handled the inquiry, but she was very efficient. She not only assured us that there was no Sioux Falls, Iowa, but suggested that, no doubt, Western Union had made a mistake and that it should be Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Further than that, she looked up the concern and found that they were listed in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and later we checked up Western Union and found that they had made a mistake.

Your Directory Library service is certainly a great convenience, but it is probably not used as much as it would be if more people knew of it. Certainly this experience has done a great deal to help keep me sold on the R. L. Polk organization.

(Signed) RAY AYERS, Jr., Sales Manager CHAMBER OF COMMERCE El Paso, Texas

The Directory Library is used daily, not only by members of the Chamber of Commerce, but by all classes of citizens and visitors. At least ten calls are made daily upon our Directory Library. In addition to this, many telephone calls are received asking for addresses of individuals and firms in other places, and this information is always looked up and reported on.

I would say that 75 per cent. of the callers upon the Directory Library are seeking their information for business reasons. They wish to know names and addresses of certain factories or merchants in various towns in order to place orders for goods, or in order to sell goods.

Frankly, we regard this service as one of the most concrete little services being performed by the Chamber of Commerce and you people are entitled to a great deal of credit for maintaining this Library.

(Signed) D. A. BANDEEN, General Manager CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Reading, Pa.

The Directors of the Reading Chamber of Commerce at their meeting on December 12th passed a resolution authorizing the Secretary to write and express to you their appreciation of the Directory of various cities supplied for the files. They consider this service one of great value from every standpoint and are deeply grateful for the fine spirit of co-operation shown by your organization in supplying, free of charge, the directories of so many cities.

I wish to add, personally, that these directories are in constant use in many ways and that we have during the course of the year, a great many callers who desire information about other cities which could not be secured in any other way. The directories from other localities are of such value in this office that we wish it were possible for Reading Directories to be distributed to Chambers of Commerce in the most important cities of the country. I hope that we may always have the continuance of your co-operation in this way.

(Signed) H. W. ELVIDGE, Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Lynn, Mass.

My opinion is that this directory service is greatly appreciated, not only by our membership, but by the public at large, all of whom have access to directories at any time during the working day. From time to time we have given considerable publicity as to the scope of directories on file, and the frequency with which they are used would seem to demonstrate that we are fulfilling a local want.

(Signed) WILLIAM H. DAY, General Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Rochester, N. Y.

There is no question as to the immeasurable value of the Directory Library in the Rochester Chamber. One concern recently had two clerks working in this department for at least three weeks, tabulating information. Every day we have numerous calls for various directories, and you can observe men consulting them in various parts of our Library. They certainly get plenty of wear and tear.

(Signed) ROLAND B. WOODWARD, General Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Manchester, N. H.

This service has been an increasingly valuable one. Our organization is in constant receipt of inquiries for information from this source. We should very much regret having this service discontinued, and if there is similar interest in other places, believe that it would be most valuable to have the Manchester Directory in other Libraries.

We want to thank you for the many courtesies which have been offered us during the year, and to let you know that we thoroughly appreciate the arrangement that you have made possible.

(Signed) MARJORIE FAY, Acting Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Kingston, New York

In reply to your recent letter regarding the Directory Library, we wish to state that we believe the idea a splendid one and the service rendered a real one. I am sure that, as it becomes better known, it will be used to a much larger extent than at present.

(Signed) LOUIS S. COE, Secretary THE PUBLIC LIBRARY Bristol, Conn.

Replying to your recent request for information, I am glad to announce that the file of directories, which you maintain for the general public in our reading room, is used more and more as time goes on. We have no record as to the actual use, as the public may refer to the directories without consulting the desk attendant; but from inquiries that are made as to those directories available, I know that you are rendering the public a service which is of great benefit and much appreciated and which would be solely missed if it were withdrawn.

(Signed) CHARLES L. WOODING, Librarian UNITED STATES POST OFFICE Athol, Mass.

The Library in the lobby of my office is indispensable, as it is serving daily a great many people in addition to the various business houses in town.

The Library contains 98 volumes and, I think, covers more than 300 cities and towns—in fact, it is an institution in itself. I should personally make quite an effort to keep this Library here if I had any idea that same was to be removed during my term of office.

(Signed) C. E. DEANE, Postmaster CHAMBER OF COMMERCE New Britain, Conn.

We cannot begin to place a valuation upon this service, but may we say that should it be discontinued, the merchants, manufacturers and individuals of New Britain would be deprived of one of its most useful services. There is not a single day passes that we do not have two or three people visit the office to consult the files and innumerable telephone calls to which the office gives its own attention.

We do not happen to be in a position to cite any definite instances where organizations might have derived a certain amount of direct business from the files, but judging from the number of people who ask for classified information would say that some business men certainly passers between them.

From an advertising standpoint, alone, we consider it a very great advantage to have the New Britain Directory in the files of other cities.

New Britain would consider it a very great loss, as we said before, if this Library were discontinued, and want you to know that the New Britain Chamber of Commerce is grateful to your organization for the service we are able to render in maintaining the Library in this office.

(Signed) MARY E. CURTIN, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Attleboro, Mass.

We certainly place a great value upon the directories we have on file, and they are consulted frequently by our manufacturers and others for information that I doubt we could get in any other way.

I trust you will keep this service up and will be able not only to keep our files up-to-date, but be able to send us additional directories from time to time.

(Signed) G. CORNELIUS BAKER, Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Auburn, New York

We find the Directory Library very useful and our citizens are using it, dependant upon their increasing knowledge that such a service is available. You will be interested to know that during a series of group meetings, of the membership, which were held at the Chamber of Commerce twice daily during the past week, the matter of directories and the service we have here, through your courtesy, was discussed extensively.

Often, I have wondered how the directory publishers secured adequate returns from this service, for it must be a heavy burden, but I trust some means may be found whereby the Directory Publishers Association will decide to continue the practice of exchange Libraries. How beneficial it is to Auburn, I am unable to say, except that it gives the city quite some publicity and certainly aids in promoting outside business, though I haven't any concrete evidence of this. I do know, positively, that the Library is used by Auburn citizens and business interests.

(Signed) JOHN M. SHETLAND, Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Fall River, Mass.

We find the Directory Library, which you have assisted us so much in building up, very valuable indeed. It is visited by strangers and citizens of Fall River for consultation daily. We are having additional bookcases provided for it.

(Signed) H. F. SHERWOOD, Manager CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Newport, R. I.

Speaking from the point of view of service offered by the Chamber of Commerce at Newport, I will say that the file of directories is used very extensively and this use is continually increasing. They are of especial importance in answering inquiries from tourists, summer residents and travelers who make Newport their stopping place during the summer season.

I can also say that the use, as far as business men are concerned, is increasing as they become acquainted with the fact that the file of directories is available for consultation.

(Signed) W. C. CAMPBELL, Secretary UNITED STATES POST OFFICE Leominster, Mass.

You are advised that from personal observation, also from inquiries that I have received, I consider the Directory Library in this office, not only beneficial to the business man, but to the public at large, and I trust that your Association will continue an exchange Directory Library through the different post offices. I will be very glad to provide a place in the lobby of the Leominster Post Office for such a Library.

(Signed) J. H. WALSH, Postmaster

WATERBURY REPUBLICAN-AMERICAN Waterbury, Conn.

In our opinion this service is a real one and is rendering substantial value. As a matter of fact our file is in almost constant use from the time we open the office at 8 o'clock in the morning until we close at 9 o'clock at night. I know of no actual instance of business resulting from the advertising sections, but I do know that the directories are constantly used by the business men.

(Signed) E. L. PIERCE, Office Manager THE DAY PUBLISHING CO. New London, Conn.

We find that many people come in to look at the directories in our Library, and know that it would be sadly missed if taken out.

(Signed) O. GARDNER

UNITED STATES POST OFFICE Torrington, Conn.

In reply to yours of recent date, relative to Directory Library, will state that, in my estimation, the file of directories at this office has been and is growing more useful each year. The call for these directories is growing more and more frequent. I did not fully realize how much of a call there was for them until you were compelled to take some from our files. Hardly a day went by but that someone was asking for one of them. Cannot call to mind any particular instance, but know that these directories are used to real advantage by the business men of this city.

(Signed) ALBERT E. WELLMAN, Postmaster UNITED STATES POST OFFICE Danbury, Conn.

I consider this service a real one, not only to a business community, but to the general public as well. There is not a day that some business man or other does not use this Library, and consider it would be a step backward to discontinue it. It has my hearty approval and trust it will be continued in the same efficient manner as it has been in the past.

(Signed) E. A. BAILEY, Postmaster

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Petersburg, Va.

The Directory Library is of considerable value to the business men of Petersburg. I have observed that quite a number of people make registers of firms and persons with whom they desire to establish connections in other cities.

Since the Library has been established here, it has been of considerable value, and I would hate to see it discontinued. I am certain that at least one concern has received a considerable number of orders by writing to people whose names and addresses were found in other directories.

If this is true of the directories now assembled in the Library of Petersburg, then it must be equally true of the Directory Libraries in other cities, and I am, therefore, of the opinion that it would be of value to the City of Petersburg if our Directory were placed in the rooms of other Chambers of Commerce.

(Signed) DAN. S. HOLLENGA, Business Manager

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Alexandria, Va.

We average between seven and eight hundred calls a year on the exchange Directory Library which is maintained in our office through the kindness and courtesy of your company.

I believe that an exchange Directory Library renders a distinct service to our business men, and while it is difficult to obtain data on the amount of business, yet from the manner in which the directories are consulted, I believe that the Library is of much service to our people.

(Signed) J. T. PRESTON, Secretary-Treasurer CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Bristol, Va.-Tenn.

Our Directory Library is one of the most valuable things we have in the office. It is used a great deal by our business men, and I am glad to learn that you intend to systematize and develop it further.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Roanoke, Virginia

Our Library is consulted daily and frequently many times a day by our Roanoke people.

It is of course, a little hard for us to check direct business results, but we know that the Exchange Library is considered very beneficial by our members on account of the frequency with which it is being used.

(Signed) B. F. MOOMAW, Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Raleigh, N. C.

Our directories are used a great deal.

(Signed) SIMMS JAMIESON, Secretary CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Wilmington, N. C.

It is a pleasure to advise that this organization secures splendid results from the directories kindly furnished us by your office.

Hardly a day passes that the file is not consulted either by strangers or local business people. The service is of direct value, and enables this office to function in a way which we could not do if we did not have the file of directories open to everyone at all times.

We feel sure that Wilmington is benefited by any of our directories, which you place elsewhere. While we do not wish to appear unnecessarily urgent, we wish you to know that we will deeply appreciate the enlargement of our files whenever you may feel inclined to let us have additional directories.

For any additional city listed among our directories we believe that there will be calls sooner or later to consult this directory.

(Signed) LOUIS T. MOORE, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Richmond, Va.

It is my opinion, based on experience, that the Library of City Directories in our office is of substantial value to the business of our city.

I believe that the directories are used in a way that facilitates the transaction of business between this and other cities. If you or somebody else did not maintain such a Library, we are confident that many times some of our business men would be seriously inconvenienced.

We believe that there is a real value to this city in having current city directories in the Libraries of publishers of directories in other cities. In our opinion you are rendering a valuable service to the business interests in this city by sending copies of your directory to other cities and in maintaining your Library of Directories of other cities.

(Signed) J. A. GAWTHROP, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Lynchburg, Va.

Of course this is more or less of an intangible thing—hard to estimate the real value. However, it is used daily by not only the members of our Chamber, but by the residents in Lynchburg in general. The directories of the small cities and towns in Virginia and North Carolina are used a great deal.

We are very glad indeed to have our Lynchburg Directory in other cities, and I occasionally hear of instances where it has been used. One case I recall in New York City, but I am unable to say what financial return came from it. It looks like it is a service that is quite necessary in a city and very much appreciated, but without actual money returns.

I should hate very much to see the Lynchburg Directory Library discontinued, and hope that this inquiry of yours does not mean you have it in contemplation, for, as I wrote above, it meets a very real need in Lynchburg.

(Signed) J. G. NOWLIN, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Rocky Mount, N. C.

The Rocky Mount Chamber of Commerce is justly proud of its Directory Library, and the business concerns in general in the city take advantage of it. Hardly a day passes but what many people consult the many directories in our Library. The Directory Library is daily gaining in popularity, and we feel it will be used even more than ever in the future.

(Signed) NORMAN V. CHAMBLISS, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, INC. Norfolk, Va.

I must state that I do not believe the public at large appreciate these exchange Directory Libraries as fully as they might because of apparent lack of acquaintance with them.

To show you, concretely, what we think of them: we had one inquiry yesterday which necessitated our using seven different directories before we secured all information desired.

With regard to the advertising section of the directory, I am not prepared to say how thoroughly this information is used, consequently I cannot judge its value, though certainly it must be of great value, else the general public would not be constantly spending money in that manner.

(Signed) W. A. COX, Executive Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE New Bern, N. C.

The New Bern Chamber of Commerce considers it a valuable service to have an exchange of directories in our Library. There is scarcely a day passes but that some reference is made to these various directories. Especially now, in view of the fact that tourists will be coming into our section each year, we feel that to discontinue this service would be a loss in securing and giving information contained in these directories. We know that this service, which you give us, is a real asset, and we hope that you can make it possible for us to secure a larger number of directories than we now have.

We also have a number of calls from our business men who are deeply interested in using the business directories of other cities and states, and I sincerely trust that you will not discontinue this service.

(Signed) H. E. BARLOW, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Pocatello, Idaho

The Directory Library is an excellent advertising medium for all business institutions and cities in the United States. That it is an excellent service is proven by the number of inquiries received.

(Signed) S. E. ANDERSON, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Phoenix, Arizona

Through the Directory Library we are able to put our people in touch with individuals in similar lines of business in other communities. We are able to answer many inquiries of a general nature through this service.

(Signed) HARRY WELCH, Secretary

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

We know of many instances where the Directories have helped local business men commercially in looking up other business houses in other cities for trade purposes. It is a wonderful means of communication between business men as well as a help in obtaining addresses of residents of other communities.

COMMERCIAL CLUB Great Falls, Montana

There is never a day passes that we do not have calls for information contained in the directories in the Library.

(Signed) L. C. JONES, Secretary

BOARD OF COMMERCE Pontiac, Mich.

We hope you will continue your Directory Library service. It is one of the most popular services which we have ever been able to furnish the public.

ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE Fond du Lac, Wisconsin

Through the Directory Library our Association is giving real service, which is much appreciated.

(Signed) E. T. MARKLE, General Secretary

BOARD OF CITY DEVELOPMENT San Angelo, Texas

We consider the Directory Library a necessity to any commercial organization. We find it indispensable.

ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Directory Library, located in the Chamber of Commerce, is used very extensively by the public. We also have constant use of it ourselves.

(Signed) LEE H. BIERCE, Secretary

BOARD OF COMMERCE Saginaw, Michigan

That the Directory Library is well established here can be seen by the fact that on February 20, 1922, we had ten inquiries during the afternoon. Everyone in the city knows where to get information with the assistance of Polk Directories.

(Signed) M. L. SHERIDAN, Office Manager

BOARD OF COMMERCE Bay City, Michigan

Each day many business and professional men make use of our Directory Library, and it would be exceedingly hard for us to get along without it.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Des Moines, Iowa

The city directories in our Library are in almost constant use, not only by Des Moines people, but by out-of-town persons who want to find addresses. This is a very fine service of which you may justly be proud.

(Signed) G. E. HAMILTON, Acting Gen. Sec'y

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Aberdeen, Washington

Although our Directory Library has been established only two years, it has become very well known, and receives constant inquiries from the local and traveling public.

The Directory Library—An Unique Service

The Association of North American Directory Publishers maintains over 300 Directory Libraries in the larger cities of North America, and aside from the many, many uses made of the directories for personal reference these collections are splendid advertising for the various cities and their industries.

This has become an international service which is so unique that it is constantly being commented upon, and although the expense of exchanging directories between publishers is very great the service is so much appreciated that the work is being carried on more and more extensively.

Early History of Directories

Many centuries ago, long before we had Directories, it was the custom of persons having goods for sale to stand on the street corner and tell the passers-by of their wares. The stranger looking for his friend searched from house-to-house or in the market place, crying his question until some one answered.

Next came the Town Crier who, hired to seek and give information, wandered through the highways and byways ringing his bell and crying "Hear ye, Hear ye" until his mission was completed. With the growth of population this picturesque service became unsatisfactory and expensive and was abandoned for information regarding the community, gathered at stated intervals. And then, with the invention of the printing press, came the publishing of this important data!

First Directories

The very first Directory issued in book form was published in 1595—in London, England—during the reign of Queen Elizabeth. This interesting book, containing only the names of such "Gentlemen" as the publishers thought fit, was entitled: "The names of all such Gentlemen of Accompts as were residing within the City of London."

Just 137 years later (1732) the first publication bearing the name "Directory" was issued in London. One of the chief difficulties of Directory publishing at this early period was the lack of house numbers, and because of this many houses were known as "The Black Bear," "The White Swan," "The Six Golden Lights"—or on such and such a road, next door to the goldsmith's. House numbering did not become general until 1800. Difficulties had to be overcome gradually until the present system of street and house numbering was evolved.

The Directory publishers have always been of great assistance to the authorities in the house numbering problem.

First American Directory

Benjamin Franklin's name appears in the first American Directory, which was published in Philadelphia in 1785. This book contained 85 pages with 3570 names.

Only four of the New York Directories of 1786 are now in existence, and that they are valued highly because of their historical value is shown by the fact that one sold at auction a few years ago for $2,400.00. In this edition appear the names of Aaron Burr and Alexander Hamilton, side by side. Little did the compiler dream that these two were to meet in deadly combat across from New York, under the shadows of the beautiful Palisades, on the Jersey side of the Hudson river.

Three years after the publication of the first New York Directory, Boston came out with her "First Edition," which was in pamphlet form and contained 56 pages. People were not as democratic in those days as they are now, and instead of the names being listed alphabetically the compilers attempted to give the names in accordance to rank and standing in the community. In this little booklet we find the name of our old friend Paul Revere (goldsmith), 50 Cornhill St. Heading his advertisement was a Liberty Bell—the same dashing spirit that led him to be the first to warn "the country people to be up and to arm," made him one of the first to advertise in the City Directory.

The Directory—A Business Asset

The City Directory is a permanent history of the city and the community for which it is compiled. Every page within its covers is alive with the names of men and their work, telling more about the community than is published in any other form. Directories set forth the characteristics and advantages of the city as a place of residence, as an educational center, as a business location or as an industrial site, while the classified lists are the world's greatest guides for buyers. There are millions of dollars' worth of goods bought and sold from the classified sections of city directories.

Today no business office is complete without its City Directory, and no city is complete without a Directory Library. While most folks think of the City Directory as a place to find names and addresses, only, there really is such a vast fund of knowledge of importance to the business man and to the individual that great Libraries of Directories are springing into existence all over the North American continent. Thousands of people are consulting these Libraries daily, and that they are supplying an ever-increasing demand is shown by the enthusiastic letters (excerpts from which you will find within this folder) received from various Directory Libraries the country over.

Association of Directory Publishers

It has been 137 years since the publishing of the first directory in the United States and the growth of population and of business in North America has been so rapid that only by co-operation and close association have the directory publishers been able to "keep up" in their directory service to the public. The Association of North American Directory publishers was organized in 1898 for the purpose of "Improving the Directory Business by Exchanging Ideas". Today it is composed of the leading directory publishers of North America.

Collections of Directories

The largest collection of Directories in the world is in the British Museum in London, England; the second largest is in the Library at Washington, D. C. Many banks and other business houses pride themselves on having libraries of their own City Directories for thirty or forty years back, and while the Directory Library of various City Directories, Gazetteers, etc., is of more or less recent origin, these various centers are already priding themselves on the information they have at their disposal.

Inside this folder you will find the addresses of the Directory Libraries maintained by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers.
